main in-put for stationery articles and the exercise books is the paper. According to information available, prices of white printing paper have increased by 3.5 per cent during the last six months.

(b) The supply of paper by the Hindustan Paper Corporation has been behind schedule due to certain difficulties faced by the Corporation such as spurt in the cost of production and natural calamities.

(c) and (d) The Government have in the meanwhile allowed some increase in the level of subsidy to meet the price increase. Department of Education has also issued instructions to the Corporation to put in all possible efforts to effect supplies as per allotments made by Department of Education.

Construction of Hostel for Orissa Students at Delhi

@3191-A. SHRI KAHNU CHARAN LENKA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government of Orissa have requested for allotment of a site for construction of a hostel building for Oriya students studying in different universities and colleges located at Delhi; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and the steps taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISRTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The matter is under consideration.

Gap between Urban and Rural Unemployment

@@3191-B SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the magnitude of poverty and unemployment in urban areas is smaller in comparison to that in rural areas;

(b) if so, whether a significant proportion of the urban unemployed who are educated, present a special set of problems;

(c) if so, what are the steps Government have taken so far to reduce the gap between the urban and rural unemployment; and

(d) whether any action plan has been prepared in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI BHAGEY GOBARDHAN): (a) The magnitude of poverty, as reflected in the poverty ratio has been less in urban areas than in rural areas. However, the unemployment rate for urban areas has been higher than that for rural areas. Absolute magnitude of unemployment is, however, high in rural areas because of larger population. The Comparative incidence of poverty and unemployment for the year 1987-88 is given below:

Poverty and Unempolyment in Rural and Urban Areas 1987-88(%)

| Poverty Ration | | Unemployment Rate* | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Rural | Urban | Rural | Urban |
| 32 66 | 19.45 | 3.07 | 6.56 |

*Usual Principal Status

@@Previously unstarred Question 2778 transferred from the 31st August 1990.

(b) The educated (those with at least secondary level education) constituted 30.6 per cent of the urban unemployed in 1987-88. Any meaningful employment strategy would have to adopt an integrated approach to the problem of both educated and uneducated unemployment.

(c) and (d) Besides sectoral development programmes, a number of anti-poverty programmes and special employment programmes like the Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), the Jawahar Rojgar Yojana (JRY), Self-Employment Programme for the Urban Poor (SEPUP), the Nehru Rojgar Yojana (NRY) and the schemes for Self-Employment for Educated Unemployed Youth (SEEUY) are being implemented.

The Approach to Eighth Plan lays particular emphasis on development of agriculture and rural sectors and envisages that the proportion of development outlays on schemes benefiting the rural population be raised to 50 per cent. It lays major emphasis on raising the rate of employment generation both in rural and urban areas For this purpose, it is also proposed to shift the pattern of investment, to the extent possible, from high capital intensive activities to high labour intensive activities. Special programmes of guaranteed work to the unemployed is also envisaged, as an interim measure.

Identification of Industrial Units Causing Pollution

£3191-C. SHRI SHAMIM HASHMI: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have identified 900 industrial units which cause serious environmental pollution; if so, what are the details thereof:

(b) which are the main pollutants found and what measures are being initiated to deal with the problem; and

(c) whether any similar study was conducted for the entire country, if so, State-wise break-up thereof and if not by when such a study will be conducted?

THE MINISTER OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI NILAMANI ROUTRAY): (a) The Government have conducted in 1984 a survey of water polluting industries. Of the 4054 large and medium sized industries identified, 2076 had installed adequate pollution control devices.

(b) The Government have identified the categories of industries in the country which have high pollution potential. An action plan has been formulated to deal with six critical pollutants, namely, lead, mercury, pesticides, carbonmonoxide, sulphur dioxide and asbestos.

(c) The survey of 1984 is being updated and a survey of air pollution has been initiated.
